

EMBROIDERY CLUB WORKS ON GIFTS FOR YULETIDE

Pulaski Social Organization Meets and Ideas for Christmas Tokens Are Exchanged.

ROUND DOZEN ENTERTAINED

Mrs. George R. Cheves Is Hostess at Delightful Affair, When Early English History and Literature Are Discussed—Other Social Events.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PULASKI, VA., December 5.—The members of the Embroidery Club held a very delightful meeting on Tuesday afternoon. Misses Viola and Margaret Hosang being the hostesses for the meeting. Yuletide gifts were very much in evidence on the embroidery frames, for each member was developing something with which she was taking exceptional pains for a remembrance to some of her friends at Christmas. There were many different designs, and each one displayed among the club members, and suggestions were thus made to others. Only members of the club participated in the meeting, those responding were Messames A. C. Hancock, M. P. Landis, C.
S. Matthews, H. W. Van Doren, B. A.
Martin, F. C. Robinson, M. C. Bane, Jan. G. Bosang, H. W. Carson and Miss Nancy Gibson.

While England to-day is participating in writing new history in the European conflict, the members of the Round Dozen Club on Wednesday afternoon in its regular meeting, went back into the archives of more ancient history, that which centered about the Elizabethan age. It was a continuation of the study which the club has mapped out for the winter months.

Mrs. George R. Cheves was the hostess "at home" to the club members, and invited friends. "Causes for Greatness of Elizabethan Age," prompted responses to the calling of the roll. "The Spanish Armada" was the subject of a most interesting and instructive paper prepared and read by Mrs. Jesse N. Bosang. The topic for the round table discussions was "The England of Elizabeth," with Mrs. W. H. Trolinger as the leader. The discussions were among the most enthusiastic which the club has participated in. Non-club members who were permitted to enjoy this meeting were Mesdames W. F.
Howard, H. C. Gilmer, Frank Stone, H. A. Sizer, W. W. Chaffin, Ella Wood, G. G. Painter, J. W. Bonas, M. C. Bane, C. W. Painter, C. S. Matthews and W.
S. Gilmer, and Mesdames Francis Stone and Kath Reiter. Club members responding were Mesdames W. H. Trolinger, J.
A. Howard, O. P. Jordan, Richard H.
Wooling, Jesse N. Bosang and Percy Johnson, and Mesdames Lillian Oglesby, Maud Darst, Alma Wilkinson and Julia Leache.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Eckman returned this week from a visit of several weeks to relatives in Pennsylvania.
The members of the Civic League conducted a bazaar this week. The affair attracted considerable interest, and was held at the Elks' Club. Fancy articles and refreshments were sold, and the funds realized will be devoted to the furnishing of the auditorium of the proposed new city school building.
The bazaar opened Thursday night and closed to-night.

WEST POINT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WEST POINT, VA., December 6.—No wedding bells have rung out more clearly this season than those that announced the twenty-fifth marriage anniversary, the silver wedding, of Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Bland, of West Point, on December 4. Mr. and Mrs. Bland and daughter received a large number of relatives and friends from this and other States. The magnificent home was decorated in palms, ferns, growing plants and cut flowers. Mrs. Bland was dressed in black champagne with silver trimmings. Miss Lucile was dressed in green crepe de chine and lace. Mrs. George W.
Richardson and Miss Alma Bland welcomed the guests. Mrs. George Bland, Mrs.
